GEORGIA.

District Court.—Georgia is now blessed with an abundance of courts, and, like the avenues leading to hell, some one of them is always open.—Macon Telegraph.

The Zebulon (Pike county) School Board advertises for teachers for the colored schools.

The Gold mines near Gainesville are said to be yielding handsomely. They will soon be regarded the El Dorado of Georgia.—Newnan Defender.

The Newnan Defender recounts the preliminary trial of Dr. McClarty, Paul McWhorter, A. H. Wynn and Hubbard Morris, of Douglass county, charged with Ku-Kluxing Columbus Jeter and his wife, Orry Jeter, negroes, in Paulding county. These negroes swore to the identity of the parties. Every one of the accused proved an alibi by unimpeachable proof. Never was there a clearer case of false accusation. The accused were released by Judge Wright.

Col. Hulbert has addressed the Columbus people on narrow gauge railways.

The Lumkin Telegraph says Daniel Lee, of Terrell county, has planted all corn and no cotton. R. F. Watts denies having kept money to build the jail a year in his hands.

An Asylum for Inebriates.—A resolution passed the Georgia Medical Association, at its late meeting, to establish an asylum for inebriates. It was suggested that perhaps the State House at Milledgeville might be granted for the purpose. The move is a good one. Drs. J. Holmes, E. J. Kirksey, and G. F. Cooper were appointed a committee on the subject.

The Augusta Constitutionalist learns that petroleum has been discovered in Wilkes county.

The Athens Watchman says the citizens are subscribing liberally to the Northeastern Railroad.

An Atlanta Boarding House and its Charms of all the places of sojourn in this city for the wayfarer, the most pleasant is the elegant and quiet boarding house, on Broad street, near the bridge over the railway, kept by Mrs. Overby. We have the pleasure of being located there just at present. Mrs. Overby is the daughter of one of Georgia's most brilliant sons, distinguished in by-gone years as a member of the U. S. Congress, and is nearly connected by blood, and by marriage, to some of the most prominent and noble of Georgia's heroic men of to-day. Among the guests we meet here, are Mrs. Hill widow of Hon. E. Y. Hill, formerly of LaGrange, and author of the late Cook Book in print; Mrs. Colquitt, widow of the late eloquent Senator Colquit of Georgia; General John B. Gordon; Mr. Lewis, author of a biography of General Gordon, soon to be published, and replete with facts of thrilling interest; Mr. Lewis, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society; Mr. Hill, one of the editorial trio of the excellent "Southern Magazine," of Baltimore; Mr. Herbst, the intelligent and interesting Librarian of the Mercantile Library of Atlanta, which is only a door or two distant, and many others of high social and intellectual worth. The guests by their cultivation and conversation, remind one irresistible of those fine club houses in the days of Addison's "Spectator," and Johnson's "Rambler," where so much wit and wisdom of those good old times were evoked.—Ga. Federal Union.

The Augusta Chronicle says Judge Levy has decided that the District Judge cannot issue a bench warrant.

Big Crop.—That live farmer and worthy citizen of old Gwinnett, Major Thomas H. Mitchell, last year, raised and picked from a small fraction over one acre of ground, 3,118 pounds of seed cotton.—Gwinnett Atlas.

Rome has a whangdoodle concern.

A Graphic and Interesting Letter.

Special Foreign Correspondence of The Constitution.

PARIS, April 1, 1871.

Is it Versailles or the Commune that will bring out the darkness of the land?" A wicked fairy seems to preside over the Assembly, for the members of it have proved but blind guides—powerful only to embitter and repel. Instead of being patriots, they showed themselves reactionists—and gave up to party what was meant for country. By their indecision and hate, they alienated instead of conciliated Paris—declared war against the city by inviting the provinces to crush it into obedience. It became somewhat sober, when too late, its concessions, niggardly as illiberal, were wrung from it through fear. It forgot that France was a Republic, and acted to restore a King—it ignored the democracy of Paris—more resolved than fierce—and victorious by the indifference of the bourgeois, the socialists—the republican pure and simple—have carried the day, laughing at the feebleness and temporizing policy of the ministers, who had neither the will to do, nor the soul to dare—grand things in a grand crisis.

THE MINISTRY

is but the creature of the Assembly; holds office but on sufrance—disdays more imprudence than sagacity. At Versailles, a vast army—120,000 men—is said to be collected for the subjugation of Paris—evidence of the resistance to be encountered. The Nargeur gives the Assembly the choice to evacuate or be expelled. But the 460,000 National Guards have no intention to attack, will leave these Coblentz emigrés to cook in their own juice. The officers may support Thiers, but the private soldiers? Yesterday, some companies of the line, quartered at Parsey, received orders to retreat on Versailles, under penalty of being shot. The National Guards flew to their rescue, and fraternization ensued. A Versailles regiment, was commanded to explore the outskirts of Paris—it marched into the city and fraternized! The Provinces will volunteer. At Lille, the demand was made by the National Guards to be sent to Versailles. The Prefect marshalled a train—only twenty men appeared, but all Belgians—desirous to find work in the capital.

Thiers has welcomed

THAT ARCH BONAPARTIST,

Canrobert, as a man and brother, who offers his sword to cut down the Canaille now, as he did for the Coup d' Etat. It is the Marquis Gallifet, the intimate of the Tuileries, that commands the cavalry at Versailles. Rouher, arrested at Boulogne, transported to Arras, has been set at liberty by Thiers. Certainly the chief minister of the ex-Emperor ought to be "examined" at least, as to what was done with the nation's money, voted to suport for years a standing army of 900,000 men, and when called upon to act, not one-third of the number could be found to march a Berlin. Then what about the mysterious fittings of the duc d' Aumale at Versailles? Are these circumstances calculated to assure Parisians that the Republic will be maintained?

THIERS

may swear by all the saints in the calendar, he will never betray the Republic—appearances cause his oath to be accepted like lover's vows. His years are too many to deceive, observes one journal, which makes the public laugh. But he promises to reduce Paris to order, has batteries at St. Cloud to open fire, his scheme must be accepted with "silence and discretion," like Pallikaos' frauds and Trochu's famous plan. French rulers, of late, succumb to "plan on the brain." The Assembly attended the funeral mass in memoriam for the French slain in the late war. Wonder how many offered up a pater noster for the living, who walk on a volcano.

THE SOCIAL LIFE OF VERSAILLES is not pleasant. A cock-loft costs 100 francs a month; cigars are becoming a rarity—even ink has run dry at the stationers. A Parisian is viewed with greater hate than a Prussian. All is gloomy, rigorous, uncertain—in Paris all is joy, liberty, decision.

PARIS

is thence happy because she has her darling wish—mistress of herself—possesses the Commune. The satisfaction is not less because it has been established despite the "rural" Assembly at Versailles, the members of which may return to their bullocks and their fields, their benighted constituents and canvassing clergy. Athens is superior to the colonies. After being condemned violently by the "party" and the "press" of order, the affair has ended like a romance—happy marriages have ensued. Some shake their fingers, and with no harm in their "ha! ha!" remind the conquerors, the matter has not been effected according to the law and the prophets—just as if any change has been accomplished in France without force. We have now peace within our walls, and what is less important, plenty within our palaces. The tranquility perhaps is only "the torrent's smoothness ere it dash below." It remains to be seen as also if the Commune will prove

"The hope of all who suffer,
The dread of all who wrong."

THE REVOLUTION

just accomplished, gives reasons to conclude that it is more economical and social than political—more practical than theoretical, and is the work of the International League, whose constitution claims a profound investigation. Its programme has "no glittering and sounding generalities of natural right." The work it has so far realized has no parallels—certainly not with the Compt at Florence, and the contest between the fat and lean citizens, the rich and poor—nor with the Reformators, of Sienna—the Cappelle, of Genoa, nor the Lazzari, at Naples. Will the victors of Paris be the masters or the servants of the crowd—will the citizen parliament die among its own worshippers? Is Paris about inaugurating a war of secession—undoing the unity realized by Louis IX., Henry IV., and Richelieu? Will the great towns of France, if Paris becomes "a free city in a free State," act on Lafayette's axiom of insurrection being the most holy of duties?

By electing members for the Commune on Sunday last, Paris was spared from a sea of blood. Not that danger was to be apprehended from Versailles, nor from the Prussianson the left bank of the river, with whom Parisians will maintain "pacific" but not "amicable" relations; but there were some of the "party of order" who took up a fighting attitude under Admiral Soisset, but mingled in peace with their adversaries subsequently. These were the gens, who lost Paris by their indifference, who remained at home when Lecomte and Clement Thomas were butchered, who shouted "peace" in the Mede Paix, accompanying such overtures, with cries of vengeance and pistol shots against the National Guards, they already shrunk from fighting and who sent a valley into the procession to keep up order. "Where is the Pyrrhic phalanx gone"—where was it on the 18th of March when a lion was in the way—a lion in the streets? "The young are idle, the old are libertines," wrote Machiavelli from Certaldo, "what can be the use of good laws, if manners are corrupt." The remark applies truly to the Paris created and bequeathed by the late Emperor.

THE ELECTIONS FOR THE COMMUNE

were rigidly effected. There was no bribery—no corruption—no ballot-boxes with false bottoms—none of that machinery of deception which was an institution under the second empire. People were free to vote, or to protest by a blank bulletin. The abstentionists were fewer than was to be expected. There was no rioting—no force displayed; the barricades muffled their cannons for that day. On Monday the official declaration of the poll took place at the Hotel de Ville. It was a people's triumph. Upwards of 50,000 National Guards defiled before the "Committee," who were seated on the balcony in crimson fauteuils. Some of the members were in the uniform of the civic guard—the others in evening costume; white ties and gloves, just as if they had assisted at the ceremonial funeral service with the Assembly at Versailles. They all wore red sashes. Doubtless many imagined the favorites would show in shirt sleeves and blue smocks, stained with blood. The proceedings were calm and orderly, cannon thundered forth a salute, responded to by the Prussians, to inform us they are listening—the National Guards cheered, with a shaking of their kepis on the muzzles of their rifles; an orator begged William, of Berlin, and Alexander, of Russia, to take note of the sovereign people; the hymn of the revolution, the Marseillaise, was sung by thousands, accompanied by military music—the bands finishing up with the newest popular ditty, le Sire de Fich-ton-Kan. There was some dancing round camp-fires in the evening, with "Daughters of the Regiments," an attempt at illuminations of course of red-glass globe.

Montmartre having led to the triumph, came out strong; women and children visited the Commons, decorated with flowers, with all their wardrobe gloriest on; the Guards displayed Phrygian caps in the mouths of their Chassepots, and all the National Guards in the city now sport red cockades in their kepis. Indeed, the red flag is that adopted by the Commune—it flies over the Tuileries the public offices, and envelopes le petit corporal on the column of the Place Vendome.

THE COMMUNE

has not lost time in acting, it has been elected to work, not to talk. It has organized its 90 members into committees to deal with home and foreign affairs, public works, finances, etc. It has voted to the National Guards thanks for its patriotism, decreed the abolition of the conscription, of substitutes in the defensive power, that no military force shall enter Paris, the city will be secured by the National Guards, whom every valid citizen must join, has prohibited the posting up of proclamations from the enemy at Versailles, has wiped out all arrears of rent for the last nine months, etc., will extend the period for taking up bills, has suppressed gambling on the highways, and will no longer legalize prostitution. To all who conspire against the Commune, they will be immediately shot. Repressive measures are adopted against their enemies as the latter execute towards them.

"Christians have burnt each other, quite persuaded. That all the Apostles would have done as they did."

Such is the opening of the famous Commune. Although the rose that all are praising, is it remains to be seen how this new body will survive internal dissension, and the war to the knife, that the assembly must at once declare against it, or forever hold its peace.

NOT THE ROSE FOR ME,

THE CITY

continues to be very quiet—no crimes. Upwards of 150,000 perhaps have left the capital in fright. Possibly they are prudent, as I think the revolution has not said its last word. The theaters are beginning to fill—the "lions" are thrown open to the public to whose protection they are handed over. The streets are crowded as in ordinary times, the cafés are full of their ordinary habitues, looking at the world passing up. The omnibusses are nearly all horsed, and ply till the small hours of the morning.

The number of horses owned by the company is 10,000. During the siege one hundred and twenty-three were given over to the military kitchen, and eleven hundred to civilian house-keeping. Strange, at the commencement of the siege, the bus horses were fed on bread, and at the closing days, the population were supplied with meal made from the oats reserved for the horses used up for food.

There are no law courts open now it Paris, either criminals or jailers are wanting. There are 36,000 suits down for hearing—among which are 320 divorce cases and demands for separation. The Mayor's are changed or are turned out so frequently, that lovers cannot be married without great difficulty. To oblige a pair of sorties last week the National Guards elected a Mayor on the spot, and registered the civil banns. After this, can anyone say the men of Belleville are ungallant? When they marched to the fort of Vincennes their wives accompanied them, to beat off the Cyprians and Messalinas who followed.

THE ONLY FOREIGN RELATIONS

the Commune holds is with Portugal, that supplies the markets with bullocks. There will be a great reduction in the salaries of the civil servants, who, if they refuse to toil for two francs a day, their stools will be occupied by the National Guards. Qualification for office will not be subjected to severe tests, not even probably of the three "R's"—seeing that the editor of the Journal Official is accused by his colleague, of inability to handle even a pen.

The Commune is not rich, so the Paris Ambulance, which worked well during the siege, cannot complain, when it asked for a souvenir and was told that it was at liberty to strike a medal in honor of its glory, and pay for it at the same time. But the Commune will pay its quota of the Prussian indemnity, and for this purpose will fine and confiscate, if necessary, all the sturdy Parisians that fled the capital to avoid fighting, and the Bonapartists who provoked the war.

☞ The Shaker gleefully remarks that an English journal, descanting on the various degrees of conubial bliss, states that the official record of the City of London for one year stands thus:

Runaway husbands	2,346
Runaway wives	1,132
Married parties legally divorced	4,175
Married parties living in open warfare	17,815
Married parties living in private misunderstanding	12,270
Married parties living mutually indifferent	56,340
Married parties regarded as comfortable	8,185
Married parties quite happy	157
Married parties perfectly happy	12

☞ Wm. M. Tweed was elected Grand Sachem of the Tammany Society, New York, Monday night.

THE CAROLINA FERTILIZER!

IS MADE FROM THE

PHOSPHATES OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

AND is pronounced by various Chemists, one of the best MANURES known. It was extensively used in most of the Cotton-growing States last season, and in a great number of trials, in comparison with other leading Fertilizers, proved superior to every other.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA PHOSPHATES

Are remains of extinct land and sea animals, and possess qualities of the greatest value to the Agriculturist. Pamphlets containing description of this

REMARKABLE DEPOSIT,

With engravings of Fossils found in it, and testimonials proving the superiority of the Fertilizer, will be forwarded on application.

Extract from article in Rural Carolinian, February number, 1871, giving details of experiments with fifteen different Fertilizers:

"From the above experiments and their results, I almost reach some conclusions which may prove of interest to others.

"First—That Peruvian Guano, which has been considered the standard for comparison for all commercial Fertilizers, fails to produce as much cotton as a Fertilizer claiming to contain no ammonia at all.

"Second—That neither the Peruvian nor the unmixed Super-Phosphates produces so well as a combination of the two, or as a commercial Fertilizer containing both super-phosphate and ammonia, like the Carolina Fertilizer, which has produced better results for me than any other commercial Fertilizer.

DEFIES REPUTATION

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1871.

☞ Several communications are crowded out this morning.

☞ The Russian province of Livona wants annexation to Prussia, and so petitioned the Czar, who told the petitioners to clear out or he would confiscate them.

☞ The House, on the 18th, passed the bill authorizing the transfer of the United States Branch Mint, at Dahlonega, Georgia, to the North Georgia Agricultural Society for educational purposes.

☞ The New York papers' Washington correspondents still keep dabbling in rumors of Cabinet changes. Nothing daunted by failures, they rattle out new speculations every day or two. The last is that John A Griswold is to take Boutwell's shoes. Morton is the chronic suggestion for the place.

But Boutwell still sticks.

The New Loan.

The Secretary of the Treasury, at Washington, has received an application from St. Petersburg, from a banking house there, to become agents for the negotiation of the new United States loan in that city. The application was accompanied by an offer to subscribe for ten millions of the new bonds, and it is understood the application will be accepted.

Argument on the Legal Tender Act Before the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court on the 18th, with a full bench, heard argument on the following points: 1. Is the Act of Congress known as the the legal tender act constitutional as to contract made before its passage. 2. Is it valid as applicable to transactions since its passage. Hon. Clarkson N. Pettis maintained the Negative. Attorney-General Akerman in lieu of a brief of his own, submitted one prepared by his predecessor, Hoar, and then proceeded in a summary way to reply to Pettis, who closed the argument, when the question was submitted to the court.

The Washington Election.

The contest in Washington City for Congressman waxes lively. There are 17,764 white, and 10,774 black votes, making a total of 28,520, with 6,992 white majority. The negroes will go Radical. The whites are divided. The Government clerks are Radical. Viewing the field practically, it seems to us the chances are in favor of Gen. Chipman, the Radical candidate, and against Merrick the Democrat.

The blacks and the concentrated Government patronage and strength, will be hard to overcome.

The election came off yesterday.

South Carolina Radical Nepotism.

The following from a letter in the Chicago Tribune will show that Radicalism is the same in Washington as in Carolina. Personal government seems the inevitable drift. Nepotism is the rule where possible. Grant and Moses copy each other. The public concern is run for private interests.

The Speaker of the House (Moses) receives his $6 per diem for every session, and the session includes four months. Before adjournment $1,000 were voted him as a present, extra, all from the State treasury. He is also Adjutant-General, and as such, receives a salary of $2,500, with $1,000 more as contingent fund, and $21,000 more for expenses(?) of the militia. He was also allowed $31,000 to buy furniture for the hall, and $800,000 to buy arms, etc. These are the figures which the records show. The Speaker's father is the Chief Justice, with a salary of $1,000, and a contingent fund in his hands of $5,800. The Speaker's father-in-law has $1,500 for one office and $1,000 for another. The Speaker's uncle is circuit judge, with a salary of $3,500; and then follows a small army of the Speaker's kin who have what to them seems a liberal share of the pickings.

☞ In the Senate, last Friday, while the Ku-Klux Bill was under discussion, Mr Schurz, who is regarded as one of the most liberal and fair-minded men of his party, remarked:

I feel warranted in saying to all the Democratic Senators on this floor, that a majority of the Republican party in the North are strongly in favor of a liberal and conciliator policy, and that they would long ago have forced their representatives on this floor, and the other, to adopt such a policy had they not been continually hampered and disturbed by the misdeeds of the disorderly element of the South, and by those Northern Democrats who, directly or indirectly, by agitation, threaten the overthrow of the settlement embodied in the Constitutional Amendments. I firmly believe this to be so, and I think every Republican Senator will bear me out in the statement.

And yet these alleged misdeeds in the South that have so potently hampered Republican liberality, have been of Radical origin; in some cases pure fabrications; in others, the premeditated result of Radical effort for the very purpose of checking a Republican conciliatory policy.

Let Mr. Schurz probe the matter to the bottom, and do the South the justice to fasten these misdeeds where they belong, and to expose the perfidious conduct of the extreme wing of his party that seeks party success at the cost of truth, and by the undeserved crucifixion of the South.

The Radical Idea of Treason.

Radicalism is a very funny thing. Its hallucinations are as comical as its mendacities are egregious and bald-faced. The thing seems to regard itself as the government, and its party as the entire people. And opposition to it is treason. That is sad.

Merrick, the Democratic candidate for Congress in Washington City, made a speech that is thus described and lauded by the Chicago Times:

Seldom has Abolitionism suffered—so terrible a scathing, and his arraignment of the Administration for its imbecility in the prosecution of the war, and for its usurpation of power, infractions of the Constitution, and invasions of personal rights and liberties, was sublime in its force and earnestness.

A Radical paper gets fiery over this arraignment of the Radical party and dubs it in this way: "A traitorous speech, lauded by a traitorous print."

This is good, funny and sad, all. Merited censure of the Radical party is treason to the government.

In all seriousness, it is time for that transparent sort of bosh to cease getting currency among an intelligent people. Surely Northern men are not to be deluded by such gabble, while in its graver features this sort of preposterous claim involves a crime against constitutional government that should be rebuked by the utter discomfiture of those who thus debauch our institutions.

☞ Reliable advices received at Fort Leavenworth, from the frontier represent that the Indians are anxious for peace, and no fears are entertained of any hostilities in this State during the present season.

The Southern Pacific.

This railroad company having organized will probably soon begin operations. From New York to San Francisco, by the Northern Pacific, is 3,373 miles. From New York to San Diego, by the Southern Pacific, is 3,094 miles—an advantage in distance of 279 miles. The following are the distances:

New York to Washington, 226 miles; Washington to Chattanooga, 624; to Meridian, by the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad, 295 miles; to Vicksburg, by the Vicksburg and Meridian Railroad, 149 miles; from Vicksburg to the eastern boundary of Texas, via Monroe and Shreveport, 188 miles; from eastern boundary of Texas to El Paso, 782 miles; through New Mexico on the 32d parallel, 578 miles, and through California, on same parallel, to San Diego, on the Pacific, 260 miles—making 3,094 miles.

The Eastern connections of the Southern Pacific will be at Shreveport and Chicksasaw, the former with the Vicksburg and Meridian Railroad. The road will be a straight shoot for 250 miles of prairie. In 850 miles will be six bridges, none over 400 feet. The road runs through a rich country, with fertile soil, fit for cotton and grains, timber in plenty, rich mines contiguous. The route can be used the whole year round.

The company has all the usual powers; can issue $50,000,000 stock, buy and consolidate with other railroads; purchase lands of other companies, issue bonds, etc.

We may look for an energetic prosecution of this great enteprise, and when completed, an accession of benefit to the entire South, incalculable in its magnitude and importance.

Crystallizing Eggs.

The Nashville Banner tells of a new and curious enterprise just about to be started in Tennessee. It seems somebody has invented the following method of crystalizing eggs in order to preserve them for long transportation and use. This is the curious process:

The egg is taken from the shell, thrown, white and yellow together, into a trough, and taken up by dipping disks arranged on a revolving cylinder. The chemical change is effected by a current of dry, warm air, introduced by a coil pipe. These disks are supplied with certain chemicals, which aid the action of the warm air. When prepared, the material does not require to be hermetically sealed, and is at once ready for all the uses of the fresh egg. It must be dissolved in twice its own proportion of water.

The machinery costs $25,000, works fifty hands and juggles 15,000 eggs a day. The thing works under an organization with the big name of the United States and Foreign Egg Desiccating Company. Mr. H. Pennington, of Savannah is the agent. A Mr. Charles A. Lamont has patented the process.

The Banner says that Nashville is a great egg market, the receipts averaging 2,000 dozen a day, and often reaching 25,000 dozen. Bristol, a small place, shipped over a million and a half of eggs.

Can't Atlanta start an egg crystalizing establishment. North Georgia surely can furnish the eggs.

APING THE DEMI-MONDE.—The Philadelphia Bulletin is somewhat severe on one of the late freaks of fashion:

Can any of our fashionable readers give us some much-desired information? Who is responsible for the use of the worst vulgarisms of the demi-monde toilet which has recently made its appearance upon our streets, in the form of a coiffure, which we may not describe scientifically, but the abominable effect of which is invariable upon all minds to which modesty and quiet taste are the cardinal standards for street costume? This new importation, so manifestly the invention of the demi-monde, consists of an arrangement of the hair which is combed down over the forehead and clipped off short or left in a short tangle, according to the character of its natural growth. There is a peculiar brazen effect produced upon the otherwise fair faces of our young girls by this detestable device, and although past experience goes far to discourage any attempt to check the worst vulgarities of fashion, it is just possible that here and there among our readers there may be parents who will discountenance this particular aping of the street appearance of the most pronounced type of the demi-monde. We are going fast enough, in these days, in the direction of breaking down all barriers of distinction between the outward manners and appearance of virtue and vice, without taking up such an offensive hideosity as this.

Home.

From the Charlotte (N. C.) Democrat we clip the following notice of the arrival home of Col. Morehead and his Atlanta bride:

A large number of our citizens had the pleasure of attending the splendid Reception Party of Col. Morehead on Thursday evening last in honor of his beautiful bride. It was, indeed, a gala night and will long be remembered by his friends as a social epoch of our city. We offer congratulations to the Colonel for being the fortunate possessor of so elegant a lady and real woman, and extend to his accomplished bride a most hearty welcome to our city. We cordially wish the happy couple long life and great happiness in their beautiful home. We trust that the tender bonds which now unite the two Queen Cities of the South will soon be followed by bonds of iron, and that before the close of another year we will be brought in close communication with our sister city by the completion of the Air-Line Railroad.

WEBSTER.

HOW THE GREAT MAN PREPARED HIS BIG RHETORIC.

In one of the debates in Congress, which suddenly called Daniel Webster to his feet, he made a brief, but quite eloquent speech, apparently without any opportunity for previous preparation. In the course of his remarks, he threw out the following sentence, which has ever since been admired as one of the most harmonious and expressive in the English language. He was speaking of our military conflict with Great Britain: "Our fathers raised their flag against a power to which, for purposes of foreign conquest and subjugation, Rome, in the height of her glory, is not to be compared; a power which can stretch over the service of the whole globe with her possessions and military posts, whose morning drum-beat, following the sun in its course and keeping pace with the hours, circles the earth with one continuous and unbroken strain of martial airs of England." As he sat down, one of the Senators congratulated him upon his speech, and, alluding to the above passage, said that to him it was inconceivable how Mr. Webster, in a speech so manifestly unpremeditated, could have formed so perfect and so beautiful a sentence, which, with hours of study, he could not improve. Mr. Webster replied that the passage was not extemporaneous; that in his summer vacation, he had visited Quebec, and while standing upon the massive and almost impregnable citadel there, looking out upon the wondrous scene of national grandeur and of nature's loveliness spread before him, the idea occurred to his mind. He immediately took his seat upon a gun, and, with a pencil and paper, sketched the thought in the most appropriate language he could at the moment command. Upon arriving at the hotel, he sat down at his leisure, and wrote it and re-wrote it, with many interlinestions and erasures, until he had molded it into the form of words which satisfied him. He then laid it aside in his retentive memory, to be used when the occasion should offer.

ROYALTY IN EXILE.

MR. AND MRS. BONAPARTE IN ENGLAND.

[M. D. Conway's Letter to Cincinnati Commercial.]

Even English flunkeyism has failed to make any important demonstrations around the late Emperor of the French since he has been in this country. On his arrival at Dover there was a tableau got up between him and the Empress, involving considerable kissing, but the crowd which gathered seemed more actuated by curiosity than anything else. Neither of the exiled magnates made a pleasant impression when seen near to. The Empress has become fat and fussy, her complexion is exceedingly dark and sallow without bloom. Those who expected to see a beauty were sadly disenchanted. The Emperor has a well-fed look, is low in stature and thick-set, and has the air of a man who never had a care in his life. He is a plain, heavy-faced Dutchman, and his illegitimacy is written more plainly than ever on his face; there is nothing French about him. His hair and mustache are now quite white, but no whiter than a year ago.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—A proclamation has been issued convening the Senate in an extra session on the 10th of May.

No confirmations to-day.

Both Houses adjourned to-day at two o'clock.

Butler made a personal explanation, defending himself from various charges, and denouncing Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, and Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois.

Farnsworth replied, closing his speech with the remark that he could convict the gentleman from Massachusetts of embezzlement and perjury before any jury in the country.

Beck replied in defense of Mr. Davis, impeaching Butler's truthfulness and personal courage.

The following is the substitute for Sherman's amendment to the Ku-Klux bill, as passed:

"That any person or person having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done, and mentioned in the second section of this act are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the same, shall neglect or refuse to do, and such wrongful act shall be committed, such person or persons shall be liable to the person injured or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by any such wrongful act which such first named person or persons, by reasonable diligence, could have prevented, and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case in the proper Circuit Court of the United States, and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal, may be joined as defendants in such action. Provided that such action shall be commenced within one year after such cause of action shall have accrued; and if the death of any person shall be caused by any such wrongful acts and neglect, the legal representatives of such person, shall have such action therefor, and may recover not exceeding five thousand dollars damages therein for the benefit of the widow of such deceased person, if any there be, or if there be no widow, for the benefit of the next of kin of such deceased person."

The case of Klien against the United States, and another case from the Court of Claims, now being argued before the Supreme Court, presents for decision the question of the constitutionality of the proviso relating to amnesty and pardon in the appropriation act of July, 1870. That act provided that no pardon or amnesty granted by the President should be considered by the courts in deciding upon any claim against the United States.

Among the nominations which failed of confirmation, was Nimms, for Inspector-General of Steamboats.

The polls closed at 7 o'clock. Partial returns indicate the success of the Republicans.

The Deficiency Appropriaton bill passed to-day. It enables the Census Bureau to settle with Census Marshals, including 50 per cent. increase of pay.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 20.—A man, giving his name as Berrian Gay, claiming to be a merchant from Archer, Florida, has been arrested here on a charge of passing a forged check for $800 on Samuel Rosevelt & Co. Since his arrest, several other merchants have entered similar charges against Gay.

Specie export half a million dollars.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—A crevasse has occurred near Bonnet Carre, a point on the left bank of the river, thirty-eight miles above the city. The Jackson Railroad has offered to furnish the means, and an effort will be made to close it.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, April 20.—Ashbury has been re-elected Commodore of the Harwich Yacht Club.

A special dispatch to the Telegraph says the Arch de Triumph has been destroyed by the fire of the batteries.

Advices from Versailles to-day report that fighting still continues at Asnieres, where the insurgents are making desperate and bloody attempts to regain their lost positions.

FRANCE.

PARIS, April 20.—Dombrowski reports that his troops recaptured certain positions, with provision, some prisoners, and adds—asking reinforcements—that the battle continues.

Rolowitz maintains his position at Asnieres against all efforts of the Versaillists to dislodge him.

Mot D'Ondre condemns the Communes for the suppression of various journals.

VERSAILLES, April 20.—Canrobert is here and the troops who surrendered with him en route hither.

The insurgent fire is gradually slacking.

It is rumored that arrangements have been made, whereby France pays Germany five hundred millions down.

The Versailles troops have succeeded in obtaining possession of Asnieres, and found that the suburbs had suffered severely from the pillage and marauding of the insurgent troops. The streets were lined with furniture and articles of clothing apparel. An endeavor was made by Dombrowski to rally the Nationals, but resulted in a failure. One of the officers of his staff has been arrested on suspicion of treachery.

The troops show no sign of wavering and keep the advantageous positions they have secured, with calmness and determination. All the railroads are now commanded by the Versailles troops, and the insurgents will be unable to obtain supplies of provisions from outside the city.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Mr. Beck asked and obtained leave to make a statement in behalf of Senator Davis, of Kentucky, who, he said, had been so foully denounced by the member from Massachusetts. He said that Senator and that member had had a controversy on the floor of the Senate.

Butler, interrupting—"Oh! no. I had no controversy with him."

Beck—The Senator denounced the member on the floor of the Senate as a d—d scoundrel, and I would characterize that as a controversy. [Laughter.] They had a quarrel on the floor of the Senate; it ought to have ended there, and would have ended there, but for the fact that the member from Massachusetts saw fit to come on the floor of the House, and use language grossly offensive to the Senator from Kentucky, and it was after that that the Senator pronounced the speech which had been quoted by the member. The member from Massachusetts, if he had a personal explanation to make should have made it then etc., but he had waited until last Tuesday, the day that Congress was to adjourn, and then asked leave to make it; having sent printed slips of it in advance to Boston and to the New York Herald; knowing that the Senator would have left the city before he could have seen it in print, therefore, I objected, because it had been held up so long, and not because I did not want to give the gentleman a chance of replication.

Butler interrupting—The reason given by the gentleman was that he would not let me speak so long as the indictment against his State was continued.

Beck—If I had had an opportunity to reply to that indictment, I would have done it in a way which I hope would have been worthy of the State. When the gentleman was trying to get leave to-day, I asked him whether he would assail the Senator from Kentucky, and he replied that he would not; and on that statement Democrat after Democrat voted to give him the privilege. I did not believe what he said, and, therefore, voted against it. [Laughter.] When the member rises and announces that the Senator from Kentucky has been guilty of falsehood, I deny it, I hurl it back, and I say that the character of that Senator is as good as that of any man upon earth.

He never did wilfully tell a lie, and no man before ever accused him of it. When the member said that the Senator was shielded by his age, and that he did not seek the proper redress. I have only to say, that while my Senator is neither a bully nor a blackguard, the member can get any redress from him that he seeks outside of this Hall, or anywhere else. [Laughter.] I do not believe that it lies in the mouth of the member from Massachusetts to talk about my Senator being shielded by his age, or not seeking proper redress. I have witnessed scenes with that member which satisfied me that he would not seek the redress to which he alludes. [Laughter.] He does not forget that I have, in the presence of fifteen members of the House, seen the member from Illinois, Mr. Farnsworth, put his fist in the face of the member from Massachusetts, and denounce him in every way that one man can denounce another, until I had to say to the other members of the committee standing by, that I did not think that one white man would take it without a fight, and that the decent negroes in my State would fight over it. [Uproarious laughter.]

Farnsworth, derisively—It was on account of his extreme age, perhaps. [Shouts of laughter.]

Butler, pointing to Farnsworth—He is not a white man.

Eldridge—Now is the time to call in the chaplain. [Continuous laughter.]

Cox—The coroner should be sent for.

The address of the Democratic Congressmen to the people of the country has been issued, and is signed by 14 Senators and 95 members of the House.

From the concluding portion of the address, the following is extracted: Everything that malicious ingenuity could suggest has been to irritate the people of the Middle and Southern States.

Gross and exaggerated charges of disorder and violence owe their origin to the mischievous minds of managers in the Senate and House of Representatives, to which the Executive has, we regret to say, exerted his aid, and thus helped to inflame the popular feeling in all this course of hostile legislation and harsh resentment. No word of conciliation of kind encouragement or fraternal fellowship has ever been spoken by the President or by Congress to people of the Southern States. They have been addressed only in the language of proscription.

We earnestly entreat our fellow-citizens in all parts of the Union to spare no effort to maintain peace and order, to carefully protect the rights of every citizen, to preserve kindly relations among all men, and to discountenance and discourage any violations of the rights of any portion of the people secured under the Constitution or any of its amendments, etc.

In conclusion, we earnestly beg of you not to aid the present attempts of the Radical partisans to stir up strife in the land, to renew the issues of the war or to obstruct the return of peace and prosperity to the Southern States, because it is thus that they seek to divert the attention of the country from the corruption and extravagance in their administration of public affairs, and the dangerous and profligate attempt they are making towards the creation of a centralized military government.

Chapman, Republican, was elected Delegate to Congress from this territory to-day, over Merrick, Democrat.

CUBA.

HAVANA, April 20.—Telegrams from Santiago, of the 18th, report an encounter between the column of Quientin and the insurgents. Twelve of the latter were killed, among them their chief, Trunillo.

Capt. Lunas' command met the insurgents near Boyame, and killed ten.

The forces under Col. Canazel, operating in Maraquitas, have had a series of engagements with the rebels, killing six and taking four prisoners.

Other engagements of less importance, are also reported. The Spanish losses are not given.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, April 20.—Thiers, in a circular announcing the capture of Asnieres, declares the end of criminal resistance to the Government is approaching.

National Debts.

Sir J. Lubbock said, on a recent occasion, in the British House of Commons, that national debt was one of the three great dangers which threatened Europe, namely: pauperism, war, and debt. Touching the last named danger, he stated that most European nations had immensely increased their debts during the last fifty years. Thus, North Germany, in 1815, owed £1,000,000; in 1870, £150,000,000; France, in 1815, owed £70,000,000, in 1870, £518,000,000; Austria in 1815 owed £99,000,000; in 1870, £200,000,000; Russia in 1815 owed £80,000,000; in 1870, £300,000,000; Spain in 1815 owed £1,000,000; in 1870, £225,000,000; Italy in 1815 owed £50,000,000; in 1870, £257,000,000—making a total of £400,000,000 in 1815, and £1,750,000 in 1870. To this Sir John Lubbock adds the debt of the United States, thus: In 1815, £25,000,000, ($116,000,000) and in 1870, £477,000,000 ($2,216,000,000) which would swell the total to £425,000,000 in 1815, and £2,227,000,000 in 1870. If the debts of other countries were included, the grand total, according to Mr. Dudley Baxter, was no less than £3,815,000,000 in 1870, against £1,530,000,000 in 1815, showing an increase of no less than £2,315,000,000, of which the greater part had been incurred during the last twenty years, and very much of it during the last ten years, as in the case of the United States and France. By way of enforcing upon his hearers the onerous burden these enormous debts imposed upon the taxpayers, Sir J. Lubbock stated that in England the interest per head was 17s. 5d in the United States, 12s. 6; in Holland, 12s. 3d.; in Italy, 11s. 10d.; in France, 8s. 7d.; in Austria, 7s. 3d.; in Spain, 7s.; in Belgium, 6s. 10d.; in Russia, 2s. 10d.; and in North Germany, 2s. 9d. per head. It will thus be seen that in the list of nations, so far as public debt is concerned, we stand "next to head." If "a public debt is a public blessing," as Jay Cooke contended a few years ago, this country is certainly blessed in a peculiar manner.

☞ Mr. Gladstone is a tall, slab-sided, fatherly looking man, whose forehead is nearly all concentrated immediately above his eyes, which are uncommonly fine. He is one of those men who can not be adequately measured by any single effort. He needs to be measured by the sum of his efforts. With many weak points, he is undoubtedly strong on the whole, and especially strong on the great points of moral principle, political freedom, and human progress. Mr. Gladstone is a thoroughly civilized man. He is eminently fit to be a pillar of State.

VIRGINIA HAMS.

AN HISTORIC INCIDENT HOW UNITED STATES MINISTER FAULKNER GOT THE FRENCH.

A genuine Virginia ham must be from three to five years old; they are not perfect much before that age. Whether it its the good and rich quality of the grain and acorns on which the hogs feeds, or some peculiarity of curing unknown out of Virginia which gives these hams their exquisite flavor, I do not know, but I cannot exaggerate their addition to the pleasures of the table.

When Mr. Faulkner was Minister to Paris, he gave on one occasion a grand ball. Just before the departure of his guests, people mostly of the highest distinction and celebrity, he invited them to be introduced to what he declared would prove to them an epicurean wonder, connoisseurs though they were. Marshaling them with great ceremony into the supper room, he cut a Virginia ham five years old, and invited the elegants around him to handle it "without gloves."

This request they literally complied with, removing their gloves and taking the thin, almost transparent slices, from which every particle of the coarse grease is extracted, between their fingers, and eating them with a piquant gusto that only a Frenchman can attain unto. Americans eat because they are hungry, but a Frenchman sublimes eating as he does every enjoyment of the senses, into something fit for the gods.

The Parisians pronounced an unanswerable verdict, to the effect that Mr. Faulkner's dish was a wonder of the world in the ham line.

☞ The Bishop of Havana left that city on the 15th instant, by the steamship Missouri, for New York. Some say he is to stop and remain at Nassau. Crowds of priests, but no citizens, were on board the vessel to bid him farewell.

ELECTION NOTICE.

AT A CALLED MEETING OF THE MAYOR and Council of the city of Atlanta, to take into consideration the propriety of subscribing for $200,000 of the Capital Stock of the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad, be it

Resolved, That an election be held in the city of Atlanta, at the City Hall, on the 2d day of May next, of the citizens of said corporation, to determine whether said subscription shall be made upon the following propositions:

1. That said Road shall be built from the city of Atlanta to Fayetteville, on as near an air-line as practicable.

2. That the principal office and all the workshops and depot of said Road, shall be permanently located in said city of Atlanta.

3. That the stock of Atlanta shall be paid in the same ratio that all the rest of said stock is paid.

4. That the city of Atlanta shall not be bound on said subscription of stock until One Million of stock is taken, including the stock of Atlanta.

5. That there shall be no discrimination against said city in freights, but the rates shall be uniformly the same upon the outgoing as the incoming freights, both through and local.

6. That said stock shall be payable in Bonds at thirty years, bearing seven per cent. per annum, at par in the city of New York.

7. That the subscription of said city shall be expended on the end of the Road nearest Atlanta.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA—Evening Session—April 20, 1871.—The case of the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company, plaintiff in error, vs. Thomas J. Wynn. Case, from Morgan, was called and argued for plaintiff by Col. J. A. Billups.

Pending argument of Thomas G. Lawson, Esq., for defendant in error, the court adjourned till 10 o'clock A. M., to-morrow.

THE improvements that have been commenced on Humbug Square, have broken up marble paving by the boys at that locality. We notice, however, that they are finding other marble yards. Well, if they are not neglecting school, or their other duties, we are ever pleased to see them amused and happy, for in this work-a-day world of ours, fun goes a great way to oil the machinery of life.

DO NOT forget the Collation of Strawberries, Ice Cream, etc., this evening, at the Kimball House.

The object is the purchase of carpeting, furniture, etc., for the new Methodist Church.

The object, the beauty, the charms, the entertainment, the feast of ice cream and strawberries, if these do not tempt our citizens to crowd the Hall, what will?

IT MUST BE HEALTHY IN THE CITY.—We judge so from an incident in front of Pease's yesterday. A physician, of standing and reputation, found time to dispute with a young man as to which of the two was the best and most accomplished whistler. Judging from the expansion of chest and mouth of the physician, we were convinced that he would defeat his rival in the art, in the long and loud whistle; but from the youth, and control of the facial muscles of the young man, we felt satisfied he would gain the victory in the twists and turns.

JOHN TAYLOR, a barber of the city, and with the reputation of a Hide Board, as far as the number of wives is concerned, recently deserted his family in this city, was arrested in Marietta on Wednesday. An officer from Judge Lyle's Court went up to Marietta, and had him at the hotel Thursday morning, waiting in front of it for the train for Atlanta. It was just at the time the storm came on. A vivid flash of lightning played around John's features; a heavy peal of thunder was heard, and the barber was spirited away—at least he escaped the officer of the law.

THE little strawberry carts are making their appearance on the streets; and neat little boxes containing this fruit are being retailed at the fruit and vegetable stands. There is no fruit so pleasing to the eye, so palatable to the taste, and so grateful to the stomach as the strawberry. It can safely rest its claims to our praise upon its own merits. Swift, we believe it was, that said, "Doubtless God could have made a better berry than the strawberry, but He didn't.

Push along your carts, boys, your berries never go begging, although the price rules high.

JUSTICE COURTS.—Eight hundred and seventy-four criminal cases have been disposed of by Justice Lynes during the past ten months. No case before his court yesterday.

Judge Smith has disposed of five hundred criminal cases in his court during the ten months that have just passed. No criminal case in his court yesterday, but a consideral amount of civil business.

Judge Spencer had before him yesterday Mrs. —— Jones, charged with a misdemeanor. Upon payment of costs, she was discharged.

During the ten months that have gone by, Judge Johnson has disposed of about four hundred criminal cases. He had no criminal business yesterday, but settled a fair amount of civil suits.

MERCHANTS from the country or neighboring towns, and customers in the city, will find our dry goods houses all fully fitted up for the spring trade. Visit the stores, and there is an almost endless maze of the exquisite wonders of the textile art, from fabrics of fairy gossamer down through all the grades of shades and hues of goods, lovely and substantial. Here are silks in every variety of shade and color. Here are dress goods unrivalled in quality, or in the reasonableness of prices.

Here is an exhaustless emporium of embroideries, and a crowning array of gloves of all the newest and loveliest tints and shades; hats that are tasty and beautiful. In fact, no taste or wish can fail to be delighted. In addition to this, there can be found at the stores a genial and considerate courtesy.

The dry goods trade has been very good during the week. The advertising columns of THE CONSTITUTION point out who is awake and who of our merchants are liberal in their dealings, and are characterized with energy and enterprise.

THAT'S "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH HANNAH."—Thirty two millions of pounds of bacon have passed over the Western and Atlantic Railroad, since December. To the man this bacon costs, add the amount of money that has been sent off for flour, hay, clover, carriages, cattle, horses, mules and various other things, that could and should be raised or made here, and this tells a great deal of why Georgia remains poor, and why the scarcity of money is complained of. Cato had a maxim, which was that a farmer should always be seeking to sell, rather than buy. What would the old Censor think if life could be breathed into him, and were he to visit Georgia, yea, Atlanta, and the country around. Would not his eyes open at seeing so many that consume, use, and wear, and so few that breed, raise, or manufacture? What would he think at seeing a planter on the street of Whitehall, looking up and purchasing Northern iron, and shoes, tooth-picks, hats, furniture, nails, pins, axe-helves, shoe pegs, rope, guano, bacon, flour, and mules? Would not Cato wonder where the farmers' profits came in? Georgia, in a few years, could wipe out the footsteps of Gen. Sherman, and Anteius-like rise from her difficulties with renewed activity, and could become rich and independent if her people would but be true to themselves, their climate and soil.

THE THEATER.—The number of transient troupes that have occupied DeGive's during the season that is passing away, have been unusually large, and the style of performances have been of an exceedingly varied and entertaining nature. One or two stars of the first magnitude have glittered before the footlights. The mythical past has been searched and scenes and events, peculiarities and virtues long gone, have been introduced. Out of mythology, burlesque has woven many a beautiful and strange conceit. Shapely limbs and elegant forms, bore resemblance to those lovely nymphs who won the loves of both gods and men. We have had musical deitys; star-eyed Asterias; Floras radiant in spangles and flowers; agricultural goddesses, in a re-flowing garbe, disclosing grace and beauty, and Venus' beautiful goddesses of love, who, if they did not exactly represent the daughter of Jupiter and Dione, found in the audiences many Vulcans, Mercuries, Mars and coy Adonises. We drank in a rich scene as we listened to Forrest. Looking from the stage along the sweep of glittering curves, rising one above the other, we saw the hall gemmed with Nature's loveliest jewels, the radiance of whose eyes fairly vied with the flash of the brilliants that shown in braided hair, hung sparkling from coral ears, glistened around graceful necks, and starred the tiny hands of beauty.

The season at DeGive's has been a successful one. The amusements have been attractive, and the companies very good. The closing engagement will perhaps be that of Nilsson. Her, whose notes where heard, have been synonymous with bank notes. Doubtless she will be greeted by the largest audience that has ever assembled within the walls of DeGive's.

THE GREAT VIRGINIAN.—Rev. W. Watkin Hicks will deliver his Lecture on Robert E. Lee, at Trinity Church, Atlanta, Tuesday evening, April 25 1871, at 8 o'clock.

It will be seen that our city is to be favored with a visit from this eminent Divine and popular Lecturer. It is understood that he will preach on Sunday morning, at Trinity Methodist Church, and at night at Wesley Chapel, and that he will deliver two lectures during the week at Trinity Church—the first on Tuesday night. Subject—"The Great Virginian." The other, "Moral Greatness, the True Aim," on Thursday night. The proceeds to go to aid aid in building a Church in the 3d Ward, near the old Fair Ground. This occasion will afford the intelligent and enlighted of Atlanta a rare opportunity of hearing addresses from one of the most chaste, elegant and polished orators of this or any country; while at the same time a strong appeal is made to the benevolent of the city, as the object is most worthy; and to carry out the programme, the committee have arranged that Col. Thomas will canvass the business part of the city to sell tickets for these lectures.

OGLETHORPE PARK.—At 9½ o'clock yesterday, there was a "Shake Bag Fight," both cocks dark red—Alabama winning in three minutes

At 10 o'clock, the 10th fight in the Main commenced. Alabama, blue gray, 5 pounds 7¾ ounces; Georgia, duck-wing gray, 5 pounds 7 ounces. Time—12 minutes. Alabama wins.

11th fight—Alabama, Robinson red, 5 pounds 7¾ ounces; Georgia, Pepe red, 5 pounds 7 ounces. Time—6 minutes. Georgia wins.

12th fight—Alabama, black-breasted red, 5 pounds 7½ ounces; Georgia, Thompson white, 5 pounds 7¾ onnces. Time—18 minutes. Georgia wins.

13th fight—Alabama, black-breasted red, 5 pounds 13 ounces; Georgia, duck-wing red, 5 pounds 5 ounces. Time—4 minutes. Georgia wins.

14th fight—Alabama, yellow-breasted red, 5 pounds 14 ounces; Georgia, duck-wing red, 5 pounds 13¼ ounces. Time—8 minutes. Alabama wins.

15th fight—Alabama, dark gray, 5 pounds 15 ounces; Georgia, dark red, 5 pounds 14⅛ ounces. Time—2 minutes. Georgia wins.

16th fight—Alabama, dark red, 5 pounds 15 ounces; Georgia, Pope gray, 5 pounds 14⅜ ounces. Time—2 minutes. Georgia wins.

17th fight—Alabama, dark red, 6 pounds; Georgia, red, 6 pounds ¼ ounce. Alabama wins.

Alabama won the Main by one fight.

After which there was some hack fighting, which profited many, while others were losers.

Later in the evening, some little unpleasantness occurred, which was satisfactorily settled.

STOP THIEF! AND READ THIS NOTICE. For Prof. Isaacsen has discovered the only certain death to rats, mice and roaches, in his great "Sure Pop." In the Eastern cities it is all the go, and we are glad our Western friends are now finding out how good an article it is. We know it will do all the inventor claims, that is it will cause the rats to leave their holes and die. Our candid advice is, try "Sure Pop," if you want to be rid of these pests. Prof. I. is now in Denmark—his home—as the "Rat Philosopher," he has made the rats and mice, their habits, characteristics, etc., a life-long study. Is it a wonder he has made the discovery of his "Sure Pop?" apr16-deod1w

IF THE testimony of aged persons who have tested the vivifying and solacing properties of LIPPMAN'S GREAT GERMAN BITTERS is worthy of credence, they are decidedly preferable to any of the unmedicated stimulants or combinations of drugs and alcohol ordinarily prescribed to cheer the spirits and strengthen the systems of persons of an advanced age. These Bitters produce no unnatural excitement, and these effects are at once soothing and strengthening, and they counteract, to a great degree, the depressing influence which the decay of the bodily energies has upon the animal spirits; it is, therefore, that it is acknowledged universally that Lippman's Bitters are cordial for the aged.

Lippman's Bitters are for sale by all druggists and dealers.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS.—The increasing popularity of Dooley's Yeast Powder has induced a certain firm who manufacture a Baking Powder to copy verbatim, our advertisements, simply substituting their name in place of ours. While this proves the standard excellence and worth of our Yeast Powder, it is calculated to deceive the consumers, and reflects the character of the parties, as well as the goods which they are endeavoring to force upon the unwary. READ! READ! READ!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally.—&c.

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. F. Scarr, Druggist, of this city:

STANLEY COUNTY, N. C.

DR. F. SCARR—DEAR SIR: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 20, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

WILSON & BLACK. march29—dtf

WHAT IS IT?—Many, many people suffer from they know not what. They are not sick—they are not well. There is no name for it. It is simply weakness—a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes, (and they are innumerable), its symptoms are in the main the same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression. Indigestion and a stomach cough are also frequently concomitants of this distressing state of body and of mind. The common remark in relation to persons in such a condition is, that the are consumptive. Now, what these unfortunates realy want is vigor, vital strength; and, as certainly as dawn succeeds darkness, they can recuperate their systems and regain perfect health by resorting to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. It is as clear that a life-reviving tonic is required in such cases, as that the dying flame of an empty lamp requires to be revived with a new supply of oil. Perfectly pure and innocuous containing nothing but the most genial vegetable extracts, and combining the three grand elements of a stomachic, an alterative, and a general invigorant. Hostetter's Bitters are suitable to all constitutions, and are as applicable to the diseases and disabilities of the feebler sex, as to those of men. apr16-d1w&w1t

APRIL.

Under the larch with its tassels wet,
While the early sunbeams lingered yet,
In the rosy dawn, my love I met.

Under the larch, when the sun was set,

Out of life with its fond regret,
What have love and memory yet?
Only an April violet.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Senate is in Executive session.

The House adopted the Ku-Klux Bill by a vote of 93 to 74—a strict party vote. Also, concurred in the resolution to adjourn at 2 o'clock to-day.

The election is progressing quietly. The Democrats are more cheerful and hopeful than they were yesterday. It is impossible to hedge the bets made yesterday, that the Republicans would have a thousand majority.

A final effort to confirm Blanchard Postmaster of New Orleans, failed by a handsome majority.

Dunn was confirmed Assistant Appraiser of Merchandise.

The Senate adopted the Ku-Klux Conference Report by a vote of 36 to 13—Robertson and Hill voting nay—and adopted a resolution to adjourn sine die at 2 o'clock.

Sherman said not one offender will be convicted—not one dollar damages will be obtained under it; the only virtue left in the bill was the employment of United States forces when necessary.

Thurman, opposing the juror test oath clause, said their selection would depend upon the Judge and District Attorney. It excluded from jury service the Attorney-General of the United States, Senators on the floor, and many others now in high public positions.

Miscellaneous foreign reports state that the insurgents were driven from Asneeres by the heavy naval guns at Gunnevilliers, supported by two columns of Versailists, whose heavy cross fire drove the insurgents across the Seine.

Dombrowski personally led the forlorn hope.

By four o'clock Wednesday all was over a Neuilly.

The insurgents refuged through Porte Maillot.

The Versaillists have gradually won all the Gunnevillier peninsular.

The insurgents were driven entirely to their own side of the Seine.

The Commune suppressed two Opinion Nationale, Cloithe Soir and Bien Publique.

A fight occurred between the fugitive Nationals from Asneeres and the civil adherents to the Commune.

The Nationals entering Porte crying "all's lost," the citizens responding, " cowards."

Honore, commandant of artillery at Neuilly, who was denounced as a traitor, has been arrested.

The Nationals are retreating in large numbers, firing houses in their rear. Many women and children seeking refuge in cellars were burned.

A number of houses in Versailles were fired by shells.

The Communists are firing on Pubeaux, doing great damage.

The road to St. Denis is crowded with people fleeing from Paris.

FRANCE.

PARIS, April 19.—There was a panic at the outposts yesterday. The Nationals were rallied with difficulty.

City and Suburban.

☞ With giant strides Atlanta grows apace. The Georgia Railroad, ever alive to the requirements of the country and their own interests, have determined to make the accommodation train between Atlanta and Stone Mountain a permanent institution. This was a practical necessity to meet the increasing demand for travel and transportation on this end of the road, now being settled and built up by some of our most enterprising businessmen, and gentlemen seeking healthy summer residences. There are now but four eligible points along this part of the road not taken up—in fact, we know of but one between this city and Decatur now on the market, to-wit: the former homestead of Rev. Dr. J. S. Wilson, now the residence of Major A. B. Ragan, at Kirkwood, offered for sale by those live real estate agents, Bell & Hammock.

☞ To-day, in LaGrange, a fashionable wedding comes off. Mr. T. C. Crenshaw, of Alabama, marries Miss Leila O. Frost, the accomplished daughter of Colonel Frank Frost. The attendants will be: Mr. James Swann, of New York, and Miss V. Frost; Mr. Clanton, of Alabama, and Miss J. Frost; Mr. Watts, of Alabama, and Miss Russell, of Atlanta; N. B. Frost and Miss Beall; Mr. Crenshaw, of Alabama, and Miss Wimbish; and Mr. Howe, of Alabama, and Miss Sallie Eady, of West Point.

☞ Between two and three o'clock this morning, the city was visited by a heavy rain, accompanied by terrific thunder and vivid lightning. A large number of the lamps on Peachtree street were extinguished. An oak tree opposite the residence of Mr. A. C. Ladd, on Whitehall street, was shivered by the lightning. So severe was the shock of the storm that many colored persons thought that there was an earthquake. Since the rain it has been very warm and sultry.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Four cases were disposed of by Mayor Hammond this morning. One for keeping a camping lot without license, one for throwing offensive matter on the street, one for jumping on the car while they were in motion, and one for hitching a horse on the sidewalk. Fines imposed amounted to $15 and costs.

☞ The storehouse of J. S. Mitchell, on an alley leading into Whitehall street, and near McCrosky's wagon yard, was entered before day this morning. Some flour and bacon missing.

☞ No business of special interest before the Superior Court this morning. On account of the indisposition of his Honor Judge Hopkins, court has adjourned over until to-morrow morning.

☞ J. S. Peterson, Esq., we learn, will soon return to Atlanta. We welcome him back to his "first love."

☞ Quite a large number of delegates to the Baptist Convention, at Cartersville, left on the Western and Atlantic train this morning.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA—Morning Session—April 20, 1871.—The case of Central Railroad and Banking Company, plaintiff in error, vs. Jeremiah Dixon, defendant in error, was resumed and argued for plaintiff by W. K. deGraffenreid and Gen. A. R. Lawton, and for defendant by J. C. Ockington, Esq., and Judge Augustus Reese.

The Court adjourned till 3 o'clock, P. M.

THE LEADERS OF SHAM REPUBLICANISM.—"The President was this evening in conference with Senator Cameron and Col. John W. Forney, on matters pertaining to the interests of the Republican party in Pennsylvania." So reads a telegram from Washington of the 11th instant. A telegram of a day or two previously said: "There was an important political conference to-day at the White House between Senators Cameron and Morton, and Ben Wade and the President." These are the "King's friends," whose advice he seeks, and whose counsels he follows. Cameron, Forney, Morton, Wade! Behold the leaders and managers of the modern sham Republican party! Rottenness and blasphemy have united to perpetuate by wrong and outrage, the power now wielded by such leaders. Look at them again; Cameron, Forney, Morton, Wade. [Cincinnati Enquirer.

☞ Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania, says Senator Cameron, the most corrupt politician of the times, has Grant under his thumb.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps:

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians. DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly ereditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,
CALIS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

25 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867—UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.: Present: Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the "schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, New York, Nov. 26, 1867.—Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination, we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist.

Ask for and Use Only LIPPMAN'S GREAT German Bitters.

As it is by far the best and purest preparation in the world for

DYSPEPSIA,
DEBILITY,
LOSS OF APPETITE,
WEAKNESS.

Want of Action of Liver,
Or Disordered Stomach,

A sure preventive for Fever and Ague, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers there are no bitters made that will compare with these in removing these distressing complaints.

The great charm of these Bitters is that whilst the roots and herbs of which they are composed contain wonderful tonic and invigorating properties, they are so carefully prepared, that those who have once tasted them, look upon this health-giving and delightful beverage as a daily necessity.

L

LIPPMAN'S GREAT GERMAN BITTERS

Are a medical cordial, possessing powerful alterative anti-bilious and invigorating properties, that can be taken by old or young, male or female, with beneficial results.

G

FOR FEMALES.

Lippman's Bitters are invaluable. They build up the system, bring health and bloom to the cheek of the invalid. As a remedy for nervous wakefulness, to which females are especially subject, they are fast superceding all other stimulants.

G

LIPPMAN'S GREAT GERMAN BITTERS

Are a cordial for the aged, and a sure protection against malarious diseases. Persons living in damp and malarious climates will find these Bitters a valuable remedy; a small dose taken occasionally, will prevent many days and perhaps weeks of sickness.

B

No License at all necessary to Sell these Bitters.

ARLINGTON HOUSE, New York, Sept. 5, 1870.

DEAR SIR: I have suffered for years with Liver Complaint and consequent loss of appetite, but two or three bottles of your invaluable German Bitters has completely restored me to health. It is simply wonderful in its effects.
Respectfully yours, DAVID WHITE.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Aug. 24, 1870.

DEAR SIR: Your Bitters have acted on me like magic. I was worse than a dead man, but two weeks ago I commenced to take your G. G. Bitters, and now I have a splendid appetite and can do the work of any two men about the farm.
Yours, gratefully, HENRY S. SMITH.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May, 1870.

Messrs. Jacob Lippman & Bro.:

GENTLEMEN—I hereby certify that I have examined and used in my practice "Lippman's Great German Bitters." I regard them as an admirable tonic and appetizer. Very respectfully,

SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS —FOR— ONE DOLLAR!

THE GRAND RAFFLE WILL POSITIVELY take place in Ringgold, Ga., on the 24th day of May next. R. G. Yates' large Brick Store House and Dwelling, and entire stock of Goods valued at Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

The House is 25 by 100 feet, fronting on Neeville street, and Tenbrooks' tree in rear. Store Room 25 by 50 feet, with 100 feet of shelving and counters each. All finished and painted in the most approved city style. State Room on second floor 25 by 50 feet. Grocery Room large and convenient. The Dwelling has four rooms and hall, all finished in neat style. There is a never-failing well in the Counting-room that supplies the Cook-room of the Dwelling by means of a pump, and is one of the best arranged houses in the State—being the capital prize.

For One Dollar you may get a prize that will supply your family for 100 years.

The entire stock of goods will be made up in packages of actual value of Ten, Twenty-five, Fifty and One Hundred Dollar packages.

We certify that R. G. Yates has made and delivered to us a deed of trust for the House and Lot in Ringgold, described in the Circular for a Raffle, which property we hold in trust to be conveyed to the holder of the ticket receiving the highest number, according to the plan of his Raffle. And, if the Raffle fails, then in trust for the repayment to the ticket holders all moneys received by him for tickets.

PLAN OF RAFFLE:

There will be Twelve Thousand Tickets issued, and to-morrow, On the 43d day of May there will be six dice thrown (three times) from the same box, by Six Sworn Commissioners, for each and every ticket. The highest number thrown will be entitled to the highest prize, and so on. Should there be a tie, another throw will determine the fortunate one.

There is one hundred and eighty prizes, from Ten to Six Thousand Dollars—being a prize for every number that can be thrown.

NOTICE TO AGENTS.

The person selling one hundred tickets, will be entitled to ten tickets and raffle for $500 extra.

The person selling fifty tickets, will be entitled to five tickets and raffle for $250 extra.

The person selling twenty tickets, will be entitled to two tickets and raffle for $50 extra.

Should there be a "tie" among agents, the Managers will determine who is entitled to it.

The lady selling the largest number of tickets will be entitled to a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine.

As there is but a remnant of tickets on hand, those wanting them will send in their orders soon.

Send money by Express or Registered letter, paying charges, as I am not responsible until the money is received by me.

You will receive a duly accredited list of the Raffle as soon as bills over, under a Notary's seal.
